

UXPA Cleveland World Usability Day 2018 Conference Sponsorship Overview

Established in 2003, UXPA Cleveland is the official Northeast Ohio chapter of the international User Experience Professionals Association (UXPA), designed to educate, motivate, and promote usability and user experience design throughout Northeast Ohio. UXPA is a growing international organization with 70 chapters around the world, and members in 60 countries.

The 13th annual World Usability Day (WUD) event will be celebrated globally on November 8, 2018. This year's theme is 'UX Design for Good or Evil'. Programs will be organized in more than 40 countries around the world. Sponsors of World Usability Day in Northeast Ohio enjoy targeted promotion in Northeast Ohio and surrounding areas as supporters of this important message—making technology easier to use. People from the UXPA Cleveland database are made aware of the local World Usability Day contributors, alongside our aggressive PR and social media outreach, including LinkedIn, Facebook and Twitter.

By sponsoring the Northeast Ohio World Usability Day conference, you will demonstrate a commitment to usability and user experience design. In addition, you will be reaching out to group of usability, user experience design, customer experience, user research, and interactive design enthusiasts and professionals.
